

National Public Issues Education Consortium

Fall 2019 Webinar Series

Community Leadership Programming

Wednesday, September 11th - 1 PM, EST

Leading by Letting Go: Developing Community Leaders Utilizing a Participant Driven Planning Model

To affect positive change, community groups need a steady stream of leaders willing to engage and participate. The EVOLVE leadership development program has been created to help meet this need. This webinar will explore how utilizing past participants to design and run the program each year enhances effectiveness and increases sustainability, as well as the challenges of utilizing a participant-driven planning model.

Julie Daniels
Community Development
Extension Educator
University of Wyoming

Nancy Bowen-Ellzey
Associate Professor
& Extension Field
Specialist, Community
Economics
Ohio State University

Myra Moss
Associate Professor &
Extension Educator
Ohio State University

Wednesday, September 18th - 1PM, EST Community Leadership Strategies in Preparation for Renewable Energy Development

Engaging community is an important first step before considering renewable energy as economic development project. Potential conflicts can be productively transformed by engaging citizens in a shared vision and effective leadership prepares residents by directly addressing concerns and focusing on key trade-offs and choices rather than misinformation or rumors.

Thursday, September 19th - 1 PM, EST

Women in Ranching

Women in Ranching empowers women by building a connected community of support on the land. This is accomplished in our Circles through experiential learning, self-inquiry and exploration and unique skill-building opportunities in a safe, facilitated environment. Our space allows women to break down negative self narratives, envision Big Leaps for themselves, and to find the YES! inside.

Amber Smith
Women in Ranching
Program Manager
Western Landowners Alliance

Joseph E. Lucente
Associate Professor &
Extension Educator
Ohio State University

Wednesday, September 25th - 1 PM, EST Building Community Leadership Through a Local Government Leadership Academy

This webinar will focus on a program that develops leadership skills and decision-making approaches of local government officials. It's built around an eleven-module curriculum from the Ohio Local Government Leadership Academy for elected officials from county, municipal, and township governments, and for appointed individuals who serve local government committees, commissions, boards, or task forces.

Thursday, September 26th - 1 PM, EST

Listen. Learn. Lead.

Great leaders are always learning and growing. Explore how Leadership Montana programming helps leaders of all ages and stages strengthen skills, set strong examples for peers, lead high-functioning teams, and build better communities for all.

Chantel M. Schieffer
President & CEO
Leadership Montana

Brooke Beam
Community Development
Extension Educator
Ohio State University

Wednesday, October 2nd - 1 PM, EST A County-Based Leadership Program that Fosters Community Knowledge and Business Skills

This webinar will highlight Leadership Highland, a county-based leadership program that educates participants on personal leadership skills, the local community, and the regional economy. This program is held monthly over the course of nine months and covers topics ranging from agriculture to workforce development.

Join all webinars at <https://msuextensionconnect.org/commdev>

This Webinar Series is brought to you by the National Public Issues Education Consortium, a faculty-led partnership representing universities, organizations and working groups dedicated to presenting, sharing, and discussing public issues relevant to community engaged scholarship across disciplines, Extension, and other university outreach activities throughout the United States.

Join the listserv (PublicIssuesEducation@sympa.montana.edu) by sending a request to commdev@montana.edu. View recordings of past webinars at <http://www.msucommunitydevelopment.org/publicissueseducation.html>.